Holy Name Parish, Wahroonga

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR C

3rd/4th July 2010

Dear Parishioners,

I have received a letter from the Vicar General, Fr Vince Casey, on behalf of the Bishop informing me that as of July 1st Father Stephen Hume is stepping down as Parish Priest of Holy Name Parish, Wahroonga. He is extending his period of sick leave and will be living outside of the parish.

The Bishop has confirmed that I will be continuing as Administrator of the Parish, with Father Martin Aye Ngwe as Assistant Priest.

The Vicar General has taken this opportunity on behalf of the Bishop who is away on leave to thank Fr Stephen publically for all the good he has done for the people in Holy Name Parish and to thank you, the parishioners, for your support of Fr Stephen in so many ways.

I ask you for your prayers for each of us: for Fr Stephen, for his health and future ministry, for Fr Martin and for myself.

Father Clem Hill, Administrator.

I have been directed to inform you of these changes.

Thank You: Once again, THANK YOU to all who very generously donated to the Catholic Mission Appeal. Approximate funds raised - in excess of $4,000.00.

NEW PG Envelopes: Are available from back table of church, in alphabetical order.

TAX RECEIPTS: Are available from back table of church, in alphabetical order. These receipts are only for CWF & Project Compassion which are 100% Tax Deductible. Should you require a receipt for Planned Giving, please contact Leona in the Parish Office.

First Informal Charity Dinner Thank You

Seventeen parishioners after the 5.30 Sunday Mass, enjoyed a convivial curry and warming wine last Sunday night, June 27, for the first ever "Informal Charity Dinner".

Andrew Rowley, the CEO of the Steve Waugh Foundation, sent a thank you note for the money raised and donated to the Steve Waugh Foundation that helps some of the most underprivileged children in India.

It was a very enjoyable night, so watch this space for the first ever "Christmas Informal Charity Dinner", on a Sunday in early December, where we will raise money for the Holy Name charity for underprivileged people in Burma or Mianmar as it is now known. Thank you all for your support.
Philip Thomson.

Spiritual Thought for the Week Love as the treasure and bond of life: Love is the bond of life, the mother of the poor, and the teacher of the rich. It is the nurse of orphans, the attendant of the elderly, the treasure of the indigent, and the common port of all the afflicted. - St. Gregory of Nyssa

RCIA Programme: One of the most rewarding things we do as a parish community is to walk with people who are preparing to join the Church. This year we plan to gather a small team to run the RCIA programme and Candy Cosgriff has again agreed to act as coordinator. If you are interested in this ministry please contact Fr Clem on 9489 3221. If you or someone you know is considering becoming a Catholic please also contact Fr Clem so we can begin to tailor a programme to meet the needs of particular candidates.

The Catholic Weekly is on sale each week for $2.

- Same-sex adoptions put children's rights at risk
- Scene 2010 – four-page souvenir guide
- Prayer became Immaculée's armour against killers
- Retreat Centres – eight-page feature
